LOBBY

Celebrate your big day in a cool, cosy resort that offers spectacular views of the South China Sea and five-star resort facilities. Amara Sanctuary Resort, sits on a 3.5 hectares of secluded tropical gardens on Singapore's Sentosa Island. The resort has a colonial yet modern architectural style that gives this idyllic enclave a modern an elegant appeal.

GLASS PAVILION

Glass Pavilion

Have a romantic solemnisation in the delicate and charming Glass Pavilion. Nestled amid botanical landscapes, the all-glass pavilion has the dreamy setting and ambience of a tropical paradise. An antique bell hanging on top of the pavilion and waterfall serves as a resplendent backdrop. And if you are worried about the heat, the pavilion is fully air-conditioned for ultimate comfort.

A walk to remember

Make a grand entrance to your banquet with a walk down this sleek staircase that leads to the ballroom. Covered with glass panels and styled along contemporary, modern lines, it's the perfect location for picture taking.

Grand Banquets

For a lavish festive wedding banquet, the Grand Ballroom is ideal with its large pillar-less space that comfortably seats 500 people. Its floor-to-ceiling glass windows overlook verdant gardens and high ceilings allow for tall decorative arrangements. The ballroom is equipped with state-of-the-art sound and its intelligent lighting and Gobo light systems allow you to personalise your wedding. And to tantalise your tastebuds, the resort serves a delectable array of eight or nine course Chinese dinners and Western cuisine.

Fine Dining

The resort has several innovative bars and restaurants including the Royal Thai Thanying restaurant, Shutters restaurant, Si Bon and Silk Road of the Sea.
